
HUD Invests in Massachusetts

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Massachusetts to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Massachusetts.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $491 million in the Commonwealth through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Massachusetts, HUD helps to shelter 20,478 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 1,531 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 2,312 homeless veterans since 2008.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Adminstration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 86,175 Massachusetts homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 64.7 percent.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 211,989 Massachusetts households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 355,317 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 19,458 healthy and energy-efficient homes in Massachusetts.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Massachusetts, HUD resolved 387 housing discrimination cases affecting 595 people.
