HUD Invests in New York

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across New York to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in New York.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $1.6 billion in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in New York, HUD helps to shelter 76,487 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 3,785 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 5,082 homeless veterans since 2008.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Adminstration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 287,043 New York homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 53.5 percent.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 605,101 New York households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 1,204,145 individuals who reside in those households.

Addressing Climate Change and Natural Disasters

HUD mitigates the effects of natural disasters by playing a leading role in helping communities to address the impacts of climate change. Since 2005, HUD has awarded $7.1 billion to support long-term disaster recovery and resiliency in New York.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in New York, HUD resolved 525 housing discrimination cases affecting 569 people.
