HUD Invests in Maryland

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Maryland to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Maryland.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $240 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Maryland, HUD helps to shelter 6,267 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 835 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 1,116 homeless veterans since 2008.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 195,552 Maryland homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 66.7 percent.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 115,449 Maryland households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 203,701 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 5,410 healthy and energy-efficient homes in Maryland.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Maryland, HUD resolved 79 housing discrimination cases affecting 125 people.
