
HUD Invests in Hawaii

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Hawaii to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Hawaii.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $68 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Hawaii, HUD helps to shelter 3,813 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 289 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 387 homeless veterans since 2008.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Adminstration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 9,489 Hawaii homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 59.1 percent.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 23,520 Hawaii households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 46,569 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 400 healthy and energy-efficient homes in Hawaii.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Hawaii, HUD resolved 36 housing discrimination cases affecting 71 people.
