HUD Invests in Kansas

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Kansas to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Kansas.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $127 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Kansas, HUD helps to shelter 2,534 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 436 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 912 homeless veterans since 2008.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Adminstration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 75,573 Kansas homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 65.5 percent.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 39,145 Kansas households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 57,482 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 3,186 healthy and energy-efficient homes in Kansas.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Kansas, HUD resolved 62 housing discrimination cases affecting 134 people.
