Letter from the Field Office Director...

This book is designed to make it easier for you to identify and apply for HUD-associated housing, be it subsidized or market rate. Originally, this book was designed solely for that purpose. However, over time we have found that people often need additional housing options. Accordingly, you will see a list of homeless shelters, supportive housing, and agencies that may be able to help you find housing included in this publication. Also, you may wish to call 211 or access their website at http://www.211ct.org/default.asp, to view their web database of all affordable housing in the state. In addition, the State of Connecticut has a website of housing opportunities state-wide which can be found online at http://www.cthousingsearch.org/.

HUD also receives calls from individuals in crisis, who have been burned out, evicted, or are otherwise in need of immediate shelter. Individuals whose houses are not habitable, due to fire or flood, need to contact emergency personnel for advice. We have found that the Red Cross or Salvation Army can often house people in these situations. Persons subject to domestic violence can call the statewide Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-888-774-2900 and/or the police if they are subject to imminent or actual violence.

Homeless persons should call 211 if in need of immediate shelter or permanent housing. Call 211, press option 3 and then press option 1 to speak with a housing specialist. The housing specialist will provide you with the current shelter options and create an appointment for you with the Coordinated Access Network. There is also a list of homeless shelters in the back of this book.

If you are under the age of 18 and you are homeless, please call 211 and press option 1. Someone will help you find shelter in Connecticut. You may also call your town or city hall to find out about local youth shelters in your area.

If you are a homeless veteran please refer to page 11 in this book or call the National Homeless Veterans Hotline (24/7) at 1-877-424-3838.

Housing issues can be complex. We have prepared this resource as a guide to assist you in your search and would appreciate suggestions for improvements to this publication. The Department is very interested in working with organizations to expand the supply of affordable housing, and would welcome calls from such groups interested in HUD's programs by contacting Carmen Rodriguez (860) 240-9700, Stella Spyropoulos (860) 240-9725 or Marc Boucher (860) 240-4818.

Sincerely,

Suzanne C. Piacentini
Field Office Director

How to Use the Guidebook

How Do I Use The Rental Housing Directory To Find Housing?

1. Look up the town where you want an apartment.

In the directory each property is classified as:

- DIL (Disabled Independent Living). A project consisting of separate units where each dwelling unit includes a kitchen and a bath. These units are for people with disabilities.

- ELD (Elderly) or DIS (Disabled). Apartments for persons or families where at least one person is 62 years old or older. In some cases, they are also available for handicapped and/or disabled persons.

- E/F (Elderly/Family). Some apartments are reserved exclusively for elderly households as defined above.

- FAM (Family). Apartments for families with no general restrictions on the type of household that can be admitted.

- GRP (Group home). Apartments for supervised group living. If you believe you qualify, speak with the project manager about any special restrictions.

- E/A (Elderly/Assisted Living Facilities). Elderly Properties with some assisted living units.

If no one in your family is elderly, handicapped, or disabled, apply at FAM or E/F properties.

Be advised that there may be long waiting lists at many properties, so you'll want to apply to as many places as possible.

2. Call the property agent to ask about vacancies, eligibility, rents, and application procedures.

How Do I Qualify?

Property agents accept applications if the applicant can pay the rent and meet other requirements e.g. have a reasonable credit history, as listed in their tenant selection policy which is available upon request to any applicant.

HUD does NOT manage or own housing, nor does it take applications for housing.

Apartments may have a rent subsidy to keep rents lower; the property agent can tell you if there is one.

Apartments with rent subsidy have additional requirements. If the right size unit is available, applicant(s) must:

(1) have an income at or below the maximum established income limit for the area on page 73,
(2) document income information; and,
(3) agree to pay the established rent.

What If There Are No Vacancies In The Apartment I Need?

Ask the property agent to put your name on the waiting list. There may be additional priorities; please inquire from the property agent if you think you may qualify for a priority. The property agent should have the priorities in writing for you to read.

Renter's Kit

Where to Begin

Looking for an apartment? It can be both exciting - and frustrating! But if you approach the whole process systematically and if you know your rights, apartment hunting doesn't have to be a hassle. Read through this Renter's Kit before you begin.

Before You Start Looking...

Know your rights and responsibilities: Federal law prohibits housing discrimination based on your race, color, national origin, religion, sex, family status, or disability. If you have been trying to rent a home or apartment and you believe your rights have been violated, you can file a fair housing complaint (page 8). When you live in an apartment, you have both rights and responsibilities. Be sure you know what's expected of you - and what you can expect in return.

Figure out how much you can afford: Some experts recommend that you budget 25-30% of your income on housing.

Figure out what you need: It's a good idea to think through what you need in an apartment BEFORE you begin shopping. How many bedrooms do you need? Do you need to be close to schools? Do you need parking? Make a list before you begin...that will help you narrow down your search.

Housing Counseling

HUD funds housing counseling agencies throughout the country that can give you advice on buying, renting, defaults, foreclosures and reverse mortgages. Just contact the housing counseling agency closest to you or call toll-free 1-800-569-4287.

Federal Rental Assistance

Waiting Lists: Each housing authority or property agent has its own system for accepting applications for the rental units they administer. In some cases, there are waiting lists; and sometimes those waiting lists can be very long, but contact the housing authority or management agency to find out.

Public Housing is low-income housing, operated by your local housing authority.

The Housing Choice Voucher Program (Section 8) allows you to find your own place to rent, using the voucher to pay for all or part of the rent. To apply contact your local housing authority (page 71).

Privately owned subsidized housing: The government provides subsidies directly to the owner who then applies those subsidies to the rents he/she charges low-income tenants. There are privately owned subsidized housing units for senior citizens and people with disabilities, as well as for families and individuals. To apply contact the management office for the site(s) that interests you.

Renter's Insurance

You may want to protect your belongings by buying renter's insurance.

Things You Should Know

Don't risk your chances to received Federal housing assistance by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application forms.

Penalties for Committing Fraud

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be:

- Evicted from your apartment or house;
- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received;
- Fined;
- Imprisoned and/or;
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance.

The State and local governments may have other laws and penalties as well.

Asking Questions

When you meet with the person to fill out your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something, ask for clarification. That person can answer your question or find out what the answer is.

Completing the Application

When you answer application questions, you must include the following information:

Income

- All sources of money you or any member of your household receives (wages, welfare payments, alimony, social security, pension, etc.);
- Any money you receive on behalf of your children (child support, social security for children, etc.);
- Income from assets (interest from a savings account, credit union, or certificate of deposit, dividends from stock, etc.);
- Earnings from second job or part time job;
- Any anticipated income (such as a bonus or pay raise you expect to receive).

Assets

- All bank accounts, savings bonds, certificates of deposit, stocks, real estate, etc. that are owned by you and any adult member of your family's household who will be living with you.
- Any business or asset you sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value, such as your home to your children.
- The names of all of the people (adults and children) who will actually be living with you, whether or not they are related to you.

Signing the Application

- Do not sign any form unless you have read it, understand it, and are sure everything is complete and accurate.
- When you sign the application and certification forms, you are claiming that they are complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that it contains false or misleading information.
- Information you provide on your application will be verified including and not limited to computer matches of the income you report with various Federal, State, or private agencies.

Recertification

- You must provide updated information at least once a year. Some programs require that you report any changes in income or family/household composition immediately. Be sure to ask when you must recertify and what you must report on recertification forms.
- All income changes, such as increases and decreases of pay and/or benefits, change or loss of job and/or benefits, etc., for all household members must be reported as noted in your lease.-
- Any move in or out of a household member; and,
- All assets that you or your household members own and any assets that were sold in the last two years.
- Request a copy of anything you sign.

Beware of Fraud - You should be aware of the following fraud schemes:

- Do not pay any money to file an application;
- Do not pay any money to move up on the waiting list;

- Do not pay for anything not covered by your lease;
- Get a receipt for any money you pay; and,
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay for anything other than rent (such as maintenance charges).

Reporting Abuse

If you are aware of anyone who has falsified an application, or if anyone tries to persuade you to make false statements, report them to the manager of your complex or your Public Housing Authority (PHA). If that is not possible, then call the local HUD office at 860-240-4800 or the HUD Office of Inspector General (OIG) Hotline at 1-800-347-3735. You can also write to: HUD-OIG HOTLINE, (GFI) 451 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, DC. 20410.

Section 8 Waiting List Web Site

How do I get on a Section 8 waiting list?

The number of Section 8 vouchers is limited by federal funding. They are obtained by applying to housing authorities or the State of CT Department of Housing. All of these sources, however, have waiting lists, many of which are quite long. Most of the time, the waiting lists are "closed," that is, they do not accept new applicants. Occasionally, however, a housing authority or the state will open its waiting list, usually for a fixed period of time, to accept new applications. Such openings are usually for two weeks or less and sometimes for as little as a single day. By state law, housing authorities must give at least two weeks' advance notice before a waiting list is opened. It is important to be aware to these notices and also to carefully follow each housing authority's directions for submitting an application.

The State has a web site, which lists all open Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher waiting lists in Connecticut. http://www.cthcvp.org/

- You can also register to receive automatic notice of the opening of Housing Choice Voucher waiting lists whenever they occur.
- The Section 8 program, which is generally administered by local housing authorities, provides rent vouchers to eligible households.
- Voucher holders find their own apartments and negotiate their own rents and leases with landlords. The landlord then signs an agreement with the housing authority that is administering the voucher. Each month voucher holders pay their share of the rent (approximately 30% of income) to the landlord, and the housing authority pays the balance of the rent directly to the landlord.

Who is eligible to apply for a Section 8 voucher?

To be eligible for a Section 8 voucher, a household's income must usually be less than 50% of the median income in the area, based on family size. The exact limits vary from area to area. There are also special categories of applicants for whom the income limit may be higher. Check with the housing authority to which you are applying to find out what its income limits are.

Is there a single statewide Section 8 waiting list?

No, you must apply separately to each housing authority.

How many waiting lists can I apply to?

You can apply to as many as you want. You do not have to live in the town in order to apply to a local housing authority's waiting list.

If I get a Section 8 voucher in a particular town, do I have to move there?

Section 8 vouchers are "portable," which means that you can use them anywhere in Connecticut. In fact, you can use them anywhere in the United States. Local housing authorities, however, are allowed to put some limits on the portability of vouchers. The most important limit is that, if you get a voucher from a town in which you are not presently living, the housing authority has the ability to require you to use your voucher only in that town for the first year that you have the voucher (after that you can move anywhere). Not all towns, however, impose this requirement. To find out if there is such a requirement, you must contact the local housing authority.

Can the landlord refuse to rent to me because I am using a Section 8 voucher?

Connecticut law prohibits discrimination based on "source of income." The law applies to all housing except certain owner-occupied buildings. If the rent for the apartment is within Section 8 limits, you cannot be rejected because you will be paying with a Section 8 voucher. A landlord can, however, require you to provide the same application information as is required for other applicants, and you can be rejected for reasons (e.g., bad references from prior landlords) that are uniformly applied to all applicants and are unrelated to Section 8 participation.

If you believe that you are the victim of housing discrimination, you can contact the State Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities at www.state.ct.us/chro/metapages/legalprot/houselink/Hunfairly.htm

Are there any other sources of rent subsidy?

The State of Connecticut runs its own state-funded rent program called the Rental Assistance Program (also known as "RAP") through the Department of Housing (DOH) and is administered statewide by DOH and its agent, J. D'Amelia & Associates (JDA). Although the waiting list posting law applies only to the Section 8 program, it is anticipated that any opening of the RAP waiting list will also be posted on their web site at http://www.ct.gov/doh/cwp/view.asp?a=4513&Q=530584. JDA can be contacted at (203) 757-1138.

What about help in getting a security deposit?

State of Connecticut - Department of Housing: Security Deposit Guarantee Program

What is the Security Deposit Guarantee Program?

For eligible households, the Security Deposit Guarantee Program provides a guarantee to landlords of up to two month's rent instead of an actual payment.

Who can apply for the Security Deposit Guarantee Program?

Three groups of income-eligible individuals/families can apply.

1. Shelter Program Resident
   Individuals/families residing in emergency shelters (including domestic violence shelters) who meet all other eligibility requirements.

2. New Housing Voucher/ Holder
   Individuals/families holding a newly issued CT DOH Section 8 Housing Voucher or a newly issued CT DOH Rental Assistance Program (RAP) Certificate who meet all other eligibility requirements.
3. Housing Voucher/ Holder Subject to Involuntary Move
   A holder of a CT DOH issued Section 8 Housing Voucher or CT DOH issued RAP Certificate forced to move due to lead paint or whose residence failed a housing quality standards inspection when that failure was the owner's responsibility and the owner refused to correct the conditions, who meet all other eligibility requirements.

How & where does a household apply for the Security Deposit Guarantee Program?
Individuals/families deemed eligible will be referred directly to DOH staff by Shelter staff or the state contractor who issued the Section 8 Voucher or RAP Certificate. DOH staff will set up an appointment for the applicant to come in and complete the application process. No walk-in applications will take place.

What are the income eligibility requirements for the Security Deposit Guarantee Program?
To be eligible for the program, an applicant must meet one of the following conditions:

1. The applicant is a current recipient of one of the following DSS programs: Temporary Family Assistance (TFA), Medicaid for Low Income Adults (LIA, formerly SAGA), Refugee Assistance, Aid to the Aged, Blind or Disabled (AABD), SNAP, or Medicaid (T-19), or
2. The annual gross income of the applicant household does not exceed 150% of the Federal Poverty Income Guidelines (see shelter staff or issuer of housing voucher/certificate for specific details).

How are benefits paid?
There is a signed agreement with the landlord that DOH will guarantee payment of the agreed-upon security deposit, in part or in whole, if the tenant moves out of the apartment and there is any damage caused by the tenant which requires repair, or if the tenant owes back rent. The landlord must submit a claim for payment within 45 days after the tenant moves out of the unit.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. WHAT DO I DO IF I FEEL THAT I HAVE BEEN DENIED A HOUSING OPPORTUNITY?

Equal opportunity in housing is mandatory for ALL housing. You may make a complaint of alleged discrimination to the following offices. [NOTE: If you direct your complaint to HUD, they may refer your complaint to the Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities.]

2. HOW DO I FILE AN FHEO COMPLAINT?
If anyone feels that they have been discriminated against based on race, color, religion, national origin, sex, familial status or disability, he/she has the right to file a complaint. Any member of our HUD office can take a complaint. A complaint can also be filed electronically through the HUD website at www.hud.gov/local/har/harfarhs.html. A client can also file a complaint by calling the following numbers:

Fair Housing Hotline: 1-800-827-5005
National Housing Discrimination Hotline: 1-800-669-9777 - TTY: 1-800-877-8339

3. I HAVE BEEN DENIED HOUSING DUE TO A CRIME ON MY RECORD. WHAT CAN I DO?
Landlords, including housing authorities, have the right to establish occupancy standards. Ask to review occupancy policies and attempt to correct any misinformation. If, however, you feel that you have been discriminated against based on race, color, religion, national origin, sex, familial status or disability, you have the right to file a discrimination complaint as described above.

4. I NEED HELP - I CAN'T PAY MY UTILITIES. WHERE CAN I GO?
If you need help paying your utility bills, contact one of these organizations.

- Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP): Fuel and weatherization assistance (800) 842-1132
- Citizens Energy Oil Heat Program: Discounted home heating oil for low-income households (877)-563-4645

5. I AM HOMELESS AND I NEED HELP. WHERE CAN I GO?
If you are homeless, help is available! HUD, along with many other federal agencies, funds programs to help the homeless. These programs are managed by local organizations that we call "homeless assistance agencies." They provide a range of services, including shelter, food, counseling, and jobs skills programs. Start by contacting INFOLINE at 2-1-1 for a listing of homeless assistance agencies in your area.

6. I AM A HOMELESS VETERAN AND I NEED HELP. WHERE CAN I GO?
The HUD-Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing (HUD-VASH) is a joint program between HUD and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) that provides supportive housing with case management services to Veterans experiencing homelessness. To find out if you are eligible for this program, call the VA's Homeless Program Clinic Line at 1-203-710-6529 Monday through Friday from 8:00am to 4:30pm. If you need to call after business hours or on the weekend, call the VA Aid Line at 1-877-424-3838.

7. WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?
If you want information about a specific apartment or development, contact the property agent listed. Remember, you MUST contact the property agent listed for information on vacancies, rents, and rent subsidies, or Section 8 project based subsidy availability. The HUD office does not keep a record of apartment vacancies. If you have any questions concerning this guide, call one of the following HUD departments:

When reporting a suspected abuse please list the name(s) of person(s) or companies involved; how big the problem is (dollars, hours, equipment, etc.); when and how long the abuse has occurred; what has been done to correct or conceal the abuse; the names of any other person(s) who might know about the abuse; where the abuse took place; and any other useful information.

9. WHEN IS THE SECTION 8 WAITING LIST GOING TO BE OPEN?
A client should contact a local housing authority in the town or city in which you are looking for housing to get information on when the housing authority will be accepting applications. Housing authorities must publicize when they are accepting applications.

10. I AM CALLING FROM OUT OF STATE, MOVING TO CONNECTICUT AND I HAVE A SECTION 8 VOUCHER, WHERE DO I GO?
You should contact the local housing authority in the city/town in which you are planning to move to. The housing authority will assist you in completing necessary paperwork and provide a listing of available housing in the area.

VA CT Homeless Services Program

Overview of Homelessness in the CT Veteran Population

There are 362,000 Veterans living in Connecticut, 56,000 receive services through VA CT Healthcare System (VA CT). On any given day across the State, as many as 500 Veterans are homeless, reside in shelters, or in dismal living conditions or in overcrowded or substandard housing. These Veterans often suffer from mental illness and substance disorders.

The VA CT Homeless Program identified 1,147 homeless or at risk Veterans through-out CT in 2014. Most homeless Veterans in Connecticut, as across the nation, are male with an estimate of 6% being women. The vast majority are single men aged 45-65.

Healthcare for Homeless Veterans

VA Connecticut's Healthcare for Homeless Veterans (HCHV) Program encompasses an array of services and service links for Veterans who are homeless, at risk of homelessness, under housed, or economically challenged. These services range from emergency shelter housing to transitional housing, to permanent supportive housing and HUD-VASH rental housing vouchers with clinical case management. The hallmark of these services is individually designed, intensive case management that allows the VA Homeless team to support our Veterans to meet not only their immediate housing needs, but also to pursue permanent housing.

The VA CT Homeless Program is made available to all VA-eligible Veterans, primarily through walk-in, National Homeless Veterans Hotline or direct referral. Homeless program staff outreach and engage Veterans who, if not currently engaged in VA services, can gain access to the full array of services offered by VA Connecticut. The Homeless team staff provides case management as well as supports for needy Veterans seeking basic needs, emergency shelter beds, transitional housing, and long range permanent housing.

HCHV Program Eligibility:

In general, Veterans who have an honorable or general discharge from the military meet the minimum active duty requirements, and who are homeless or in need of stable housing are eligible for HCHV services. To gain access to HCHV services, Veterans must be:

1. Homeless or at risk of homelessness.
2. Assessed and evaluated through outreach and intake with a HOMES Assessment interview.
3. Meet income guidelines established by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

In the event a Veteran is ineligible, Homeless program staff will assist Veterans in accessing services through community shelter and housing providers.

Internal Revenue Service - Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) sometimes called the Earned Income Credit (EIC), is a refundable federal income tax credit for low-income working individuals and families. Congress originally approved the tax credit legislation in 1975 in part to offset the burden of social security taxes and to provide an incentive to work. When the EITC exceeds the amount of taxes owed, it results in a tax refund to those who claim and qualify for the credit. https://www.irs.gov/credits-deductions/individuals/earned-income-tax-credit

Carta de la Directora de la Oficina...

Este libro está diseñado para que sea más fácil para que usted pueda solicitar vivienda asociada con HUD, ya sea subsidiado o tasa de mercado. Originalmente, este libro fue diseñado exclusivamente para ese propósito. Sin embargo, con el tiempo hemos encontrado que las personas necesitan información adicional. En consecuencia, usted verá una lista de agencias que pueden ser capaces de ayudarle a encontrar viviendas incluidas en el libro, vivienda transitoria y refugios sin hogar. Además, pueden llaman al 211 o acceder a su sitio web en http://www.211ct.org/default.asp, para acceder a su base de datos web de todas las viviendas asequibles en el estado. Además, el estado de Connecticut tiene un sitio web de vivienda oportunidades todo el estado que se pueden encontrar en línea en http://www.cthousingsearch.org/.

HUD también recibe llamadas de individuos en crísis, que han perdido su vivienda debido a un fuego, desahucio, o que de otra manera necesitan vivienda inmediatamente. Individuos cuyas casas no son habitables, quemadas o inundadas, necesitan comunicarse con las personas de emergencia para consejo. Hemos encontrado que la Cruz Roja o Salvation Army puede ayudar en estas situaciones. Otros grupos que ofrecen vivienda incluyen el Salvation Army. Personas que son victímas de violencia doméstica deben llamar la agencia de Violencia en el Hogar a 1-888-774-2900 y también a la policía.

Las personas sin hogar deben llamar a los refugios citados en la parte posterior del este libro. Las personas menos de 18 años necesitando vivienda, deben llamar el teléfono directo de la Violencia en el Hogar al 1-888-774-2900 o vivienda locales de juventud. Si no hay vivienda citada en su ciudad, usted podría llamar 211 para localizar vivienda.

También hemos encontrado que usando contactos personales puede ser una manera de encontrar unidades que no se publican. Si usted conoce gente que es consciente de tales unidades, quizás con iglesias u otras organizaciones de asistencia social, usted puede encontrar vivienda. Las iglesias también funcionan con los pequeños refugios, que no se pueden enumerar en directorios formales. A veces, las organizaciones ofrecen vivienda a cambio de trabajo.

Las respuestas no son fáciles. Hemos preparado este recurso con mucha información, y damos la bienvenida a sugerencias para mejorar este libro. El departamento está muy interesado en trabajar con organizaciones para ampliar la fuente de vivienda a precios razonables y acogería llamadas de grupos interesados en los programas de HUD. Por favor llame la Sra. Rodríguez al 860-240-9700.

Sinceramente,

Como Utilizar La Guia

Como Utilizo El Directorio De Vivienda De Alquiler Para Encontrar Un Apartamento.

1. Encuentre la cuidad donde usted desea un apartamento.

En el directorio cada característica se clasifica como:

- DIL (Vivienda independiente para lisiados). Un proyecto que consiste en las unidades separadas donde cada unidad de la vivienda incluye una cocina y un baño. Estas unidades están para la gente con inhabilidades.
- ELD (Ancianos) o DIS (Lisiados). Apartamentos para las personas o familias donde por lo menos un miembro tiene 62 años. En algunos casos, están también disponibles para las personas perjudicadas e inhabilitadas.
- E/F (Ancianos/Familia). Algunos apartamentos se reservan exclusivamente para los ancianos según lo definido arriba.
- FAM (Familia). Apartamentos para las familias sin restricciones generales en el tipo de casa que puede ser admitido.
- GRP (Grupo casero). Apartamentos para la vivienda supervisada de grupos. Si usted cree usted califica, hable con el encargado del proyecto sobre cualquier restricción especial.
- E/A (Ancianos/Instalaciones de vivienda asistidas). Propiedades para ancianos con algunas unidades de ALF.

Si nadie en su familia es anciano, lisiado, o inhabilitado, aplique a propiedades de FAM o de E/F.

Aconséjese que puede haber listas de espera largas en muchas propiedades, así que usted debe de hacer aplicación a varios lugares.

2. Llame al agente de la propiedad para preguntar sobre vacantes, elegibilidad, alquileres y los procedimientos de aplicación.

¿Cómo califico?

Agentes de la propiedad aceptan aplicaciones si el solicitante puede pagar el alquiler y cumplir con otros requisitos por ejemplo tienen un historial de crédito razonables, como se indica en su política de selección del inquilino que está disponible a petición a cualquier solicitante.

HUD no poseer vivienda ni administrar, ni tiene aplicaciones para la vivienda.

Apartamentos pueden tener un subsidio de alquiler mantener rentas más bajas; el agente de la propiedad puede decir si hay uno.

Apartamentos con subsidio de alquiler tienen requisitos adicionales. Si existe la unidad del tamaño correcto, solicitante debe:

(1) tienen un ingreso en o por debajo del límite máximo de ingresos establecido para la zona en la página 73,
(2) información de ingresos documento; y,
(3) se compromete a pagar la renta establecida.

¿Que Si No Hay Ningunas Vacancias Del Tamaño Que Necesito?

Pida que el agente de la propriedad ponga su nombre en la lista de espera. Pueden haber prioridades adicionales; preguntele al agente de la propriedad si usted cree que califica para una prioridad. El agente de la propriedad debe tener las prioridades en escrito para que usted pueda leerlas.

Alquiler Manual Del Arrendatario

Dónde Comenzar

¿Está buscando un apartamento? ¡Puede ser divertido, y frustrante! Pero si aborda todo el proceso en forma sistemática y conoce sus derechos, buscar un apartamento no tiene por qué ser un problema. Lea este Manual del arrendatario antes de empezar.

Antes De Empezar A Buscar...

Conozca sus derechos y responsabilidades: Las leyes federales prohiben la discriminación en materia de vivienda basada en raza, color, nacionalidad, religión, sexo, estado civil o discapacidad. Si ha estado intentando alquilar una casa o apartamento y cree que sus derechos han sido violados, puede presentar una queja por discriminación en la equidad de vivienda en la página 22. Cuando usted vive en un apartamento, tiene derechos y obligaciones. Asegúrese de averiguar qué se espera de usted, y qué puede esperar a cambio.

Calcule cuánto puede pagar: algunos expertos recomiendan que destine un 25-30% de sus ingresos para la vivienda.

Piense qué necesita: Es una buena idea pensar qué apartamento necesita ANTES de empezar a buscar. ¿Cuántos dormitorios necesita? ¿Necesita estar cerca de las escuelas? ¿Necesita estacionamiento? Haga una lista antes de empezar... esto lo ayudará a limitar la búsqueda.

Asesoría De Vivienda

HUD financia agencias de asesoría de vivienda por todo el país que pueden ofrecerle asesoría sobre compra, alquiler, cesación de pagos, ejecuciones hipotecarias e hipotecas revertidas. Simplemente comuníquese con la agencia de asesoría de vivienda más cercana o llame al número telefónico gratuito 1-800-569-4287.

Asistencia Financiera Federal

Listas de Espera: Cada autoridad de vivienda tiene su propio sistema de aceptación de solicitudes para los unidades de alquiler que administra. En algunos casos existen listas de espera, que a veces pueden ser muy extensas. Pero comuníquese con su autoridad de vivienda para averiguar.

Seguros Para Arrendatarios

Es posible que usted quiera proteger sus pertenencias comprando un seguro para arrendatarios.

Alquile Su Vivienda

Las personas que reciben vales de la Sección 8 encuentran su propia vivienda de alquiler y utilizan los vales que reciben de la agencia de vivienda para ayudar a pagar el alquiler. Básicamente, el vale significa que el gobierno federal pagará un monto específico del alquiler. Si usted es propietario de una vivienda que quiere alquilar a inquilinos de la Sección 8, comuníquese con su agencia de vivienda pública local para averiguar cómo hacerlo en la página 28.

Sitio Del Web De la Lista De la Sección 8

¿Cómo consigo un lugar en la lista de espera para sección 8?

El número de los vales de la sección 8 es limitado por el financiamiento federal. Son obtenidos por la aplicación a las autoridades de la vivienda o el departamento de servicios sociales. Todas estas fuentes, sin embargo, tienen listas que esperan, muchas de las cuales están absolutamente de largo. La mayoría del tiempo, las listas que esperan es "cerrado," es decir, ellos no acepta a nuevos aspirantes. De vez en cuando, sin embargo, una autoridad de la vivienda abrirá su lista de espera, generalmente por un período de la hora fijo, de aceptar nuevos usos. Tales aberturas están generalmente para dos semanas o menos y a veces para tan poco como un solo día. Por ley del estado, contener autoridades debe dar por lo menos la comunicación previa de dos semanas antes de que se abra una lista de espera. Es importante estar consciente a estos avisos y también seguir cuidadosamente las direcciones de cada autoridad de la vivienda para someter un uso.

El Estado ahora tiene una página del web que enumere listas abierta para la sección 8 en Connecticut.
http://www.cthcvp.org/

- Que usted puede también colocarse para recibir el aviso automático de la abertura de las listas que esperan del vale bien escogido de la vivienda siempre que ocurran la sección 8 del
- El programa de la sección 8, que es administrado generalmente por autoridades locales de la vivienda, proporciona los vales del alquiler a las casas elegibles.
- Los sostenedores del vale del encuentran sus propios apartamentos y negocian sus propios alquileres y arriendos con los propietarios.

El propietario entonces firma un acuerdo con la autoridad de la vivienda que está administrando el vale. Los sostenedores de cada vale del mes pagan su parte del alquiler (approximadamente 30% de renta) al propietario, y la autoridad de la vivienda paga el equilibrio del alquiler directamente al propietario.

- renta) al propietario, y la autoridad de la vivienda paga el equilibrio del alquiler directamente al propietario.

Quién es elegible para solicitar un vale de la sección 8?

Para ser elegible para un vale de la Sección 8, una renta de casa debe generalmente ser menos de el 50% de la renta mediana en el área, basado en tamaño de la familia. Los límites exactos varían de área al área. Hay también categorías especiales de los aspirantes para quienes el límite de la renta puede ser más alto. Compruebe con la autoridad de la vivienda a la cual usted se está aplicando descubre cuáles son sus límites de la renta.

¿Hay solos una lista de espera de la sección 8 estatales?

No, usted debe aplicar a cada autoridad de la vivienda.

¿Cuántas listas de espera puedo aplicarme?

Usted puede aplicar a todas las autoridad local que usted desea. Usted no tiene que vivir en la ciudad para aplicar a la lista de espera de una autoridad local de la vivienda.

¿Si consigo un vale de la sección 8 en una ciudad particular, tengo que moverme allí?

Los vales de la Sección 8 son "portables," que significa que usted puede utilizarlo dondequiera en Connecticut. En hecho, usted puede utilizarlos dondequiera en los Estados Unidos. Las autoridades locales de la vivienda, sin embargo, se permiten poner algunos límites en la portabilidad de vales. El límite más importante es que, si usted consigue un vale de una ciudad en la cual usted no esté viviendo actualmente, la autoridad de la vivienda tiene la energía de requerirle utilizar su vale solamente en esa ciudad por el primer año que usted tiene el vale (depues usted puede moverse dondequiera). No todas las ciudades, sin embargo, imponen este requisito. Para descubrir si hay tal requisito, usted debe entrar en contacto con la autoridad local de la vivienda.

¿Puede el propietario rechazar alquilarse a mí porque estoy utilizando un vale de la sección 8?

La ley de Connecticut prohíbe la discriminación basada en la "fuente de ingresos". La ley se aplica a todas las viviendas excepto algunos edificios ocupados por el dueño. Si el alquiler para el apartamento está dentro de límites de la Sección 8, usted no puede ser rechazado porque usted pagará con un vale de la sección 8. Un propietario puede, sin embargo, requerirle proporcionar la misma información del uso que se requiere para otros aspirantes, y usted puede ser rechazado por las razones (e.g., malas referencias de propietarios anteriores) que se aplican uniformemente a todos los aspirantes y están sin relación a la participación de la Sección 8.

Si usted cree que usted es la víctima de la discriminación de vivienda, usted puede entrar en contacto con la Comisión del Estado en Derechos Humanos y Oportunidades en www.state.ct.us/chro/metapages/legalprot/houselink/Hunfairly.htm
o el Centro Justo de la Vivienda de Connecticut en http://ctfairhousing.org/

¿Hay otras fuentes del subsidio del alquiler?

El Estado de Connecticut funciona con su propio programa del alquiler llamado el Programa de Ayuda de Alquiler (también conocido como " RAP") con el Departamento de los Servicios Sociales (DSS) y es administrado por J.D'Amelia & Asociados (JDA). Aunque la ley de la fijación de la lista de espera se aplique solamente al programa de la Sección 8, se anticipa que cualquier abertura de la lista de espera del RAP también será fijada en la página del web http://www.ct.gov/dss/cwp/view.asp?a=2353&q=305206.
Llame a JDA a (203) 757-1138 para aplicar para el programa de RAP.

Statewide - Connecticut Network For Legal Aid Launches Self-Help Website: Connecticut's legal aid programs are pleased to announce the launch of the Connecticut Network for Legal Aid Web site (www.ctnla.org and www.ayudalegalct.org). CTNLA.org was developed to help Connecticut's low-income residents find help for their legal problems. Visitors will find easy-to-read information on a variety of issues such as evictions and foreclosures, housing and employment discrimination, domestic violence and family law. Much of the site's content is also offered in Spanish, and users will find links to legal and civil rights information in five additional languages. The site explains how to apply for legal aid and also connects self-represented parties with relevant court forms, government agency sites, and community organizations that may be able to help them.

¿Que es la Red de Ayuda Legal de Connecticut? Las Organizaciones de Ayuda Legal en Connecticut trabajaron juntos y crearon este sitio web para ayudar a las personas con bajos ingresos a encontrar ayuda para sus problemas legales. Este sitio tratará de contestar sus preguntas y darle información y las herramientas para ayudarle a representarse usted mismo. Los enlaces de abajo son parte de nuestra red. Obtenga ayuda: Personas con bajos ingresos pueden calificar para asistencia legal gratuita. Visite la pagina Web (http://www.ctnla.org/es/obtenga-ayuda) para información legal gratuita.
