HUD Invests in Georgia

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Georgia to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Georgia.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $387 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Georgia, HUD helps to shelter 8,214 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 1,707 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 2,649 homeless veterans since 2008.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Adminstration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 345,511 Georgia homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 64 percent.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 145,637 Georgia households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 301,047 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 4,083 healthy and energy-efficient homes in Georgia.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Georgia, HUD resolved 99 housing discrimination cases affecting 215 people.
