
HUD Invests in South Dakota

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across South Dakota to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in South Dakota.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $36 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in South Dakota, HUD helps to shelter 830 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 211 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 500 homeless veterans since 2008.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Adminstration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 16,297 South Dakota homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 70.5 percent.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 13,801 South Dakota households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 23,116 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 414 healthy and energy-efficient homes in South Dakota.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in South Dakota, HUD resolved 9 housing discrimination cases affecting 16 people.
