
 APPENDIX III

Regional and Field Office Jurisdictional Areas

This Appendix delineates the geographical jurisdictions within which Regional and Field Offices perform their major program operating functions of Housing, Community Planning and Development (CPD), and Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO). It does not address the support functions of administrative or legal services, economic and market analysis, labor relations, public affairs, program planning and evaluation, environmental activities or debt collection services, nor does it describe the organizational structure of either operating programs or support functions.

Any change in the geographical jurisdiction of, or types of functions performed by, a Regional or Field Office is to be processed in accordance with procedures described in Handbook 1105.1, Departmental Organization Policies, Standards, and Procedures.

Section 11. SPECIAL JURISDICTIONS FOR INDIAN PROGRAMS

GENERAL. Because of the unique governmental status and geographic spread of Indian tribal jurisdictions and Alaska Natives, all Departmental activities for Indians, except mortgage insurance activities, are normally administered by separate organizations which generally differ from the standard jurisdictions and which often cross standard Regional boundaries. The special jurisdictions for Indian programs are described below.

CHICAGO REGIONAL OFFICE. The Office of Indian Programs in the Chicago Regional Office administers Indian programs for the states in Regions I, II, III, IV, and V plus the State of Iowa. This includes the following states:

Alabama	Maryland	Ohio
Connecticut	Massachusetts	Pennsylvania
Delaware	Michigan	Rhode Island
Florida	Minnesota	South Carolina
Georgia	Mississippi	Tennessee
Illinois	New Hampshire	Vermont
Indiana	New Jersey	Virginia
Iowa	New York	West Virginia
Kentucky	North Carolina	Wisconsin
Maine

OKLAHOMA CITY OFFICE. The Indian Programs Division of the Oklahoma City Office administers Indian programs for the States of Kansas and Missouri, and for all the states in Region VI, except New Mexico. This includes the following states:

Arkansas
Kansas

Louisiana
Missouri

Oklahoma
Texas

DENVER REGIONAL OFFICE. The Office of Indian Programs in the Denver Regional Office administers Indian programs for all the states in Region VIII plus the State of Nebraska, and particular tribal jurisdictions within the States of Nevada and New Mexico. This includes the following states:

Colorado
Montana
Nebraska
