I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. On August 11, 2006, Miguel and Maria Ochoa, a married couple, and their two adult sons, Alfredo Ochoa and Jose Ochoa (hereinafter "the Complainants"), filed a complaint under Sections 804(a), 804(b), and 818 of Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended by the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988 (hereinafter the "Fair Housing Act" or "Act")(42 U.S.C. 3600 et seq.) and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act (42 U.S.C. 2000d et seq.) against the Respondent property owner, Ontario Townhouses Limited Partnership, A California Limited Partnership, Respondent property management company, Edgewood Management Corporation (hereinafter collectively "Ontario/Edgewood"), and Hollie Meeks, the resident manager of Ontario Townhouses from January 17, 2006 to September 10, 2007. Ontario/Edgewood having been named in and served with a copy of said complaint, and the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (hereinafter "the Department" or "HUD"), having undertaken a preliminary investigation of said complaint, herein agree that the complaint be resolved under the following terms and conditions. In their complaint, the Complainants, who are Hispanic, allege that because of their national origin Ms. Meeks did the following: Ms. Meeks improperly calculated their rent and overcharged them for rent and refused to do repairs; Upon receiving a notice of rent increase, Complainants requested help from Ms. Meeks, but she demanded more documents, harassed, yelled and threatened them with eviction; Ms. Meeks yelled at them because of their inability to communicate in English; Ms. Meeks refused to communicate with them (as well as other tenants) in Spanish or accommodate them because of their limited English proficiency (LEP); Ms. Meeks subjects the Hispanic families to harassment and to different terms and conditions in an effort to constructively evict them and replace them with African-Americans some of whom are not on the waiting list and are relatives of the manager; Ms. Meeks applies high rent increases to the Hispanic families, which she does not do to the African-Americans; When the Hispanic families request needed repairs in their units or contact her regarding the terms of their tenancy, she takes too long to serve them or does not help them at all, but when African-Americans report problems in their units, they are served right away; and Ms. Meeks engaged in a pattern of behavior which caused the complex to change from being predominately Hispanic to predominately African American. (According to a 2006 survey by the U.S. Census Bureau, the City of Ontario has a population which is 9.2% African American and 58.5% Hispanic, however 41% of the tenants at the complex were African Americans as of July 2007.) Ontario/Edgewood deny all of the Complainants' allegations.

30. The Parties agree that should the Department have reasonable cause to believe Ontario/Edgewood have breached this agreement, the Department shall refer the matter to the Attorney General of the U.S. Department of Justice for enforcement of the terms of the Agreement, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 3610. The Parties further agree that should the Complainants breach this Agreement, Ontario/Edgewood may pursue any rights and remedies they may have against Complainants arising from such breach including, but not limited to, the filing of an unlawful detainer lawsuit for violations of the lease or the resident rules and regulations or other suits as may be appropriate under the circumstances.
31. Complainants understand and agree that any and all tax liability that may become due because of said Agreement is their sole responsibility, and that they will pay any taxes, penalties, or interest on that amount or they will pay for failure to withhold or report taxable income based on their treatment of this amount as non-taxable. Ontario/Edgewood make no representations as to the federal, state and/or local tax consequences to Complainants of said Agreement, and Complainants acknowledge and agree that they are solely responsible for any and all taxes, penalties and/or fines levied against Ontario/Edgewood by federal, state and/or local taxing authorities for Ontario/Edgewood's failure to withhold and/or deduct such federal, state and/or local taxes from the settlement payment identified in paragraph 16 above. In addition, Complainants understand and agree that neither Ontario/Edgewood nor any other individual or entity released by this Agreement has any duty to defend or indemnify them against any claim that appropriate taxes were not paid and/or appropriate withholdings were not made from all or part of the sums paid hereunder.

VIII. REPORTS AND RECORD KEEPING

32. This Agreement contains specific actions that are required of the Complainants and Ontario/Edgewood. These actions must be completed within the specified timeframes and the Department must verify satisfactory completion. It is understood that this Agreement may serve as the Parties' sole notice of the required contents and deadlines. Failure to provide documentation of compliance with the terms of this Agreement constitutes a breach of the Agreement, and may result in referral of the matter to the Attorney General of the U.S. Department of Justice for enforcement proceedings without further notice.
33. With regard to paragraph 28, Ontario/Edgewood will provide to the Department a certification of attendance, as identified in the certification form which is part of this Agreement, within ten (10) days of the completion of such training.
