

Grantee's Spotlight

Karyn Engle is the Section 3 Coordinator for the Sanford Housing Authority (SHA) in North Carolina. She holds a Master's Degree in Organizational Management and her undergrad is in Occupational Education, Corporate Training & Development. She also comes to the table with ten years of housing experience from Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles (HACLA) and valuable networking experience from owning her own business. With the Section 3 grant awarded to the Sanford Housing Authority, Karyn jumped right in and began building partnerships with local businesses and agencies to find the resources & employment opportunities, not only to our public housing residents, but to ALL low income residents of Lee County. She has become a team member for Sanford Job Seekers and the Veterans Outreach of Central North Carolina and continues to strive for partnerships & opportunities to assist Section 3 residents find employment. She has enabled SHA to not only meet our Section 3 goals set in place by HUD but to exceed them!

On a personal note, Karyn's hobbies & interests lie heavily in animal care, rescue & education. She has volunteered for over 30 years working with wild & exotic animals – raising over 9 African Lions, 3 Tigers as well as training a wide variety of other animals such as kinkajous, primates, coyotes, giraffes, just to name a few.
