

HUD Invests in Connecticut

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Connecticut to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Connecticut.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $190 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 91,338 Connecticut households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 158,340 individuals who reside in those households.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 10,195 healthy and energy-efficient homes in Connecticut.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Connecticut, HUD helps to shelter 3,531 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 619 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 838 homeless veterans since 2008.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Connecticut, HUD resolved 101 housing discrimination cases affecting 163 people.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 90,385 Connecticut homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 65.4 percent.
