

HUD Invests in West Virginia

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across West Virginia to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in West Virginia.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $107 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 33,619 West Virginia households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 58,508 individuals who reside in those households.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in West Virginia, HUD helps to shelter 1,583 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 311 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 608 homeless veterans since 2008.

Creating Sustainable Communities

HUD programs are designed to support next-generation sustainable housing and communities. Since 2010, HUD has helped produce 1,845 healthy and energy-efficient homes in West Virginia.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 26,285 West Virginia homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 74.4 percent.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in West Virginia, HUD resolved 36 housing discrimination cases affecting 44 people.
