

Bio

Jill Montgomery is the Section 3 Coordinator of the Housing Authority of Kansas City, her main responsibilities are to connect residents with employment and training opportunities created by businesses that meet Section 3 requirements.

Jill has four years of experience in employment services working with pre and post released offenders in the state of Minnesota and eight years of experience in case management employment services working for the Department of Corrections in Kansas City. She has earned a certification as a Global Career Development Facilitator for Credentialing and Education and also completed her training as an offender workforce development specialist. Jill has also worked as a family self-sufficiency case manager specializing in employment placement. Jill will earn her Bachelors in Science in Human Services by December, 2013.