Introduction

The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) has developed tools to assist American Indian and Alaska Native communities and businesses to learn about the GSA programs that are available to federally recognized tribes. Along with these tools GSA has outlined information on businesses and communities that are already using some of these programs successfully.

This report provides that data for the fiscal years of 2011 to 2015. The programs are:

- Federal Acquisition Services (FAS) Schedules
- Public Building Services Construction Contracts
- FAS Personal Property Disposals
- PBS Real Estate Property Disposals

Each table provides the name of the company or tribe in alphabetical order and the state where they reside.

You can also find this report along with other tools on the GSA website at: www.gsa.gov/tribalinfo

The other tools available are:

- Information on GSA's 17 programs available to federally recognized tribes
- The GSA National Desk Reference for Tribes and Tribal Organizations
- Tribe Success Stories
- SAMHSA Culture Card
- Links to other important national websites

During FY2013 through FY2015 Tribes and Tribal Organizations have realized successes with GSA's schedule sales, construction contracting, personal property transfers and real property transfers. This document provides an overview of those successes.

Schedule Sales Procurement

GSA FAS Schedule Contracts, also known as GSA Schedules or Federal Supply Schedules, are indefinite delivery, indefinite quantity (IDIQ), long-term contracts under the General Services Administration's Multiple Award Schedule (MAS) Program. GSA Schedule Contracts were developed to assist federal employees in purchasing products and services; they contain pre-negotiated prices, delivery terms, warranties, and other terms and conditions which streamline the buying process.

Native American Owned Business had a combined total of $897,152,091 in GSA Schedule Sales to the Federal Government for FY11 - FY15 . These contracts were distributed through 179 Native American owned companies. Below is a list of those companies:

Personal Property Transfers

GSA's Office of Personal Property Management helps federal agencies dispose of personal property that is no longer needed. At the same time, it helps other federal agencies, tribes & tribal organizations, state & local agencies, and public organizations acquire these items. Personal Property refers to tangible items ranging from common products, such as office equipment and furniture, to specialized apparatuses, including scientific devices and heavy machinery.

Through the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Native American tribes and tribal organizations are able to acquire personal property. During fiscal years 2011 through 2015, 90 tribes received personal property with the combined value of $104,827,542 million. Below is a listing of the tribes and tribal organizations that were transferred personal property.

Real Property Transfers

GSA's, Office of Real Property Utilization and Disposal handles disposition of Excess & Surplus Real Property for Federal Agencies under U.S. Code, Title 40 § 102. Real Property (land and improvements) that a Federal agency no longer has a mission need for is reported excess to GSA for disposal. (Some agencies have their own authority to dispose of Real Property and may not report property to GSA for disposal.)

There are a few instances where real property transfers have occurred with Tribes and Tribal Organizations. They are:

- 43.38 acre transfer to BIA in October 2005 for use by the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians (Confederated Tribes) in support of their Public Law 93-638 contract. This property was transferred from the Coos Head Air National Guard Station in Charleston, Oregon by the U.S. Air Force. The property was appraised for $1,435,000. The site included 13 buildings with approximately 46,041 square feet. It was determined by the State Historic Preservation Society that the entire 43 acres and all the buildings were eligible for listing on the National Register of Historic Places.
