

HUD Invests in Alabama

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Alabama to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Alabama.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $220 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 97,649 Alabama households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 190,038 individuals who reside in those households.

Addressing Climate Change and Natural Disasters

HUD mitigates the effects of natural disasters by playing a leading role in helping communities to address the impacts of climate change. Since 2005, HUD has awarded $282 million to support long-term disaster recovery and resiliency in Alabama.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Alabama, HUD helps to shelter 3,518 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 804 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 1,335 homeless veterans since 2008.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Alabama, HUD resolved 50 housing discrimination cases affecting 118 people.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 139,766 Alabama homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 73.5 percent.
