

HUD Invests in Washington

HUD is the Department of Opportunity. True to its mission, HUD is working closely with state and local leaders across Washington to promote homeownership, support community development, and increase access to affordable housing, free from discrimination. Below are some examples of HUD at work in Washington.

Housing Highlights

Building Stronger Communities in the Century of Cities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $272 million in the State through the Community Development Block Grant Program. CDBG supports a broad range of public improvements for places like community centers and parks.

Easing the Rental Crisis

HUD provides 85,335 Washington households with rental assistance. That assistance impacts 170,916 individuals who reside in those households.

Ending Homelessness

On any given night in Washington, HUD helps to shelter 12,540 persons experiencing homelessness. HUD is currently providing permanent homes for 1,747 formerly homeless veterans and has helped house 2,547 homeless veterans since 2008.

Investing in Tribal Communities

Since 2010, HUD has invested $340 million to promote homeownership and community development, stimulate economic development and produce affordable housing among Native American tribal communities in Washington through such programs as the Indian Community Development Block Grant, Indian Housing Block Grant and the Section 184 loan guarantee program.

Helping Families Secure Quality Housing

The Federal Housing Administration (FHA) insures the mortgages of 160,873 Washington homeowners, helping drive a statewide homeownership rate of 63.8 percent.

Leveling the Playing Field

HUD is committed to ensuring that every American has the chance to pursue housing opportunities free from discrimination. Last year in Washington, HUD resolved 219 housing discrimination cases affecting 343 people.
